

MUSICAL MONDAYS JULY

Music can soothe, excite, bring back memories, or make you want to dance. With that in mind, during the month of July, we invite you to come and participate by listening to various forms of music or enjoying the customs of other countries. Take some time this summer to enjoy the music!

MUSIC: ANCIENT AND BRAND NEW Monday, July 2, 2018 6:30-7:30 p.m.

Husband and wife musicians Gary and Deborah Lee meld their diverse experiences to bring you music from times past along with new and original compositions that are modern yet hearken to older forms. Musical selections will be various combinations of voice, trumpet, cello, and an early music instrument known as the viola da gamba.

SCANDINAVIA THROUGH MUSIC AND DANCE Monday, July 9, 2018 6:30-7:30 p.m.

Join us as we take a journey around Norway, Sweden, and Denmark through traditional music and dance with long-time fiddlers Rex Couture and Paul Russell. You'll travel to these nations as you watch various Scandinavian dance styles featuring Rex and Nancy Couture.

Nancy and Rex are members of the International Folk Dance Association in St. Louis.

JOYS OF THE VIOLIN Monday, July 16, 2018 6:30-7:30 p.m.

Chris Clark and Steve Nowels of Top Notch Violins in Maplewood will teach about the history, origin, and craftsmanship of the violin and its family of instruments. Not only will you learn its history, but you'll hear how the violin can be used to perform various genres of music and how these various stringed instruments can sound so very different depending on how the instrument is played. If time allows, Chris may even be able to tell you what that family heirloom may be worth.

BETH TUTTLE JAZZ TRIO Monday, July 23, 2018 6:30-7:30 p.m.

St. Louis has been home to some great Music, not the least of which is jazz. Join us this evening to hear some of the great sounds from the Golden Age of Jazz. For those who have yet to become fans of the music of the past, you'll be hooked by these jazz standards. We are pleased to host Beth Tuttle (keyboard and vocals), Andrew Gibson (percussion), and Vince Corkery (bass), all well-known faces in the St. Louis Music scene.

AN EVENING OF BRASS : MUSIC, RHYTHM, AND MELODY Monday, July 30, 2018 6:30-7:30 p.m.

Join us as we welcome the Arlington Brass Ensemble who will perform various pieces of music selected for brass instruments. The group has been in existence for over 18 years and has expanded to include trumpet, French horn, tuba, baritone, and trombone players. They perform several times a year as a group. Their home base is Arlington United Methodist Church in Bridgeton, MO.
